Madrid, March 29. His Catholick Majesty has named the Marquis de Valparaiso to go for England in Quality of his Envoy Extraordinary to make his Complements of Condoleance upon the Death of the late King of ever Blessed Memory, and to Congratulate His Majesty's Succession to the Crown. The Marquis de Villa Garcia Ambassador from this Crown at Venice, is appointed to go with the same Character to the Court of France. The 26th Instant arrived here the Marquis de Feuquieres, Ambassador Extraordinary from his Most Christian Majesty, who had last night a private Audience of the Duke de Medina Celi. We have advice, by a Vessel arrived at St. Lucar the 18th Instant from the West-Indies, That the Galeons were the 11th of December last at Vera Cruz, kept there by the Northerly Winds which came in much sooner then they used to do, so that the Fleet cannot be expected in any of the Ports of this Kingdom till July or August. This Ship came from the Havana the 14th of January, and heard two days before that Lorensillo the Pyrate had taken the Patache of Cuba a Ship of 36 Guns that went out with the Galeons.

Warsaw, March 20. The Dyet, after great contests, made at last choice on the 15th Instant of the Sieur Pikers of Lithuania to be their Mareschal or Speaker. The Deputies of Lithuania who assembled at Grodno are not yet arrived here, but are impatiently expected, their absence putting a stop to the most important deliberations of the Dyet. In the mean time the Season advances; and there are not yet any preparations made for the Campagne. The Letters from Lemberg of the 3d Instant give an account, that the Brother of Mohila General of the Cossacks, understanding that the Turks and Tarters had besieged Niemirow, where the said General then was, he had drawn together what Troops he could and Marching with great diligence had raised the Seige with a very great slaughter of the Enemy.

Vienna, March 25. Count Palfi, Lieutenant General of the Hungarian Troops, arrived here the 21st Instant from the Imperial Camp near Newheusel, and reports that the day before he came from thence Colonel Heusler received a reinforcement of 3000 Men, and that he had an account of several other Troops that were on their March to joyn him; And withal assures us that the Turks in Newheusel have not Provisions to subsist longer then till the end of the next Month. The 22d arrived here an Expres from the Emperors Ambassador at Venice, and the next day another with Letters for his Imperial Majesty from the Republick, to desire, as we are told, passage through the Emperors Territories for the Troops the Senate have caused to be raised in Germany. Orders have been sent to all the Imperial Officers to have their Regiments
